Go2 Welcomes Erick Johnson as Director of Mobility Services – AT&T Wireless

July 7, 2008 – Go2 Communications, Inc. (Go2) welcomes Erick Johnson as Director of Mobility Services - AT&T Wireless. In this role Erick will be responsible for all facets of the Mobility Services division including client cultivation, contract negotiation, application development, process management and deployment.

Erick will oversee all wireless related projects and overall client/partner satisfaction. In addition, Erick will be working with Go2 Executives on strategic initiatives to expand the suite of service offerings and the direction of the corporation in terms of wireless.

“Erick is a great addition to Go2 and our overall grown plan. He brings tremendous industry experience and value to our wireless customers. He is an integral part of our team and we are pleased to have him in this role,” said David Cosentino, CEO of Go2 Communications, Inc.

Erick brings over ten years of wireless industry experience. He most recently held the position of Business Care Manager at AT&T where he managed a portfolio of top business accounts within New England. Prior to AT&T, Erick held various roles in both sales and client support at Cingular Wireless and Cellular One. Erick is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science.
